LITERARY.

Since the Literary Society is the one organization in which all the students, as well as our good friends among the Faculty and others not so intimately connected with us, take a lively interest, it was with a great deal of pleasure that we saw our expectations of the success of its first meeting of the year realized. Notwithstanding present conditions the attendance was very creditable. A row of paper bags ornamenting the edge of the west side of the gallery showed that the fund for soldiers' Christmas boxes had not been forgotten. Who says that he did not like the contents of his bag?

On examining the programme we were happy to see the one familiar name of Mrs. Bowers, remembering the pleasure that her singing has given us in the past. The hearty applause which was in all cases gracefully given, was evidence enough to the reporter of the enjoyment which the audience derived from the vocal and violin solos, and the splendid readings of Mr. Davis. Perhaps you would like to see the program for yourselves.

Mr. Davis gave as encore the much appreciated Jonathan and an impersonation of the Kaiser. We would like to tell you also the names of the delightful musical encores, but do not happen to know them. What's in a name anyway?

Among those present we saw Mr. Thompson, ex-president of the Literary Society. We had not a chance to interview him, but feel sure that his opinion, as he listened to the program and heard Miss Bell's speech of welcome, was that his mantle had fallen upon worthy shoulders.

We await with impatience the eighth of December when the Dramatic Society will take charge and present MARY GOES FIRST.

ALBERTA COLLEGE

The President of the College Y.M.C.A. was given this advice by an enthusiastic supporter of this branch of work: "Don't have too many meetings." The Committee has tried to carry out this suggestion, with the result that only one meeting is held in the week, on Wednesday evening, for Bible Study, from 6.45 to 7.30. The Committee is very anxious to make this meeting a success, and to this end asks that every student will give his hearty support. It is also hoped that the lovers of the classics will not allow their diversion to interfere with the meeting.

The Y.M.C.A. of the College is also very anxious to co-operate with the University and to this end asks that every student give the Sunday morning services very hearty support.

J. W. SMILEY.

Many strange sounds heard in the vicinity of the College lead one to believe that some of the male students are taking vocal lessons this year. Others are favoring the country with their sweet melodies, and appreciative audiences heard Mr. J. Hart at Stony Plain and Mr. D. Young, at Wiesville.

A Social was held in the Assembly Hall, on Saturday evening, November 18th. The king's uniform — reminiscent of the route march — was much in evidence. The programme consisted of games, promenades, and a musical contest which was won by Mr. Sykes. Ice-cream and cake were served at the close. By general consent this was one of the best socials we have had and, speaking from the boys' standpoint, such entertainments cannot occur too often.

ROBERTSON COLLEGE

We have just received a letter from M. M. MacLean who is in Scotland at present. He spent the past summer amid the classic environments of Oxford, but he informs us that he has successfully passed his examinations and is now a "swanking" lieutenant. Meanwhile he is spending a holiday in his "ain glen" before he reports for duty. As yet he is not sure which regiment he will be attached to, but he expects it will be either the Seaforth or Gordon Highlanders. Seemingly Mac has not altogether fallen from grace for he imparts the interesting information that he had been visiting his brother in Arran and preached at his Communion services.

Rev. Dr. Shearer, of Toronto, paid us a visit the other evening. He impressed upon us the necessity of studying the social conditions of the community, and brought to our notice the Social Convention which is to be held at Calgary on November 23rd and 24th. The Council decided to send a representative who would report to the student-body the proceedings of the Conference. Mr. M. S. Kerr, B.A., was appointed delegate. Judging from the programme, the Conference should be both interesting and instructive, and we look forward to a very full report from our representative.

Y. M. C. A.

Australia has sent sixty Y.M.C.A. representatives with their troops to the war zone, the Associations in Australia covering all the expenses incident to the work of their representatives.

Canada has in France forty-three 'Y' centres among the troops from the Dominion.

The growth of the Military Service Department is shown in the report of Captain H. A. Pearson, the Senior representative with the Canadian Corps:—

- 1914—250 lbs of stationery a week.
- 1916—A surplus of over a million sheets.
- 1914—50 cases of cake.
- 1916—300 cases a day.
- 1914—Y.M.C.A. officers looked on as unnecessary.
- 1916—More requests from O.C.' for 'Y' men than can be filled.
- 1914—Services in barns; no books or music.
- 1916—In tent or hut; 18 pianos, 84 Grafonolas.

At the University Sunday Service on the 19th Nov., the Rev. G. F. Driver, of Fort Saskatchewan, preached the sermon. We believe that this is the first occasion on which one of our own graduates has spoken at the service; we are glad the precedent has been made. Mr. Driver was able to tell, from his own experience, the religious problems of the student today; and showed how, out of the difficulties, the larger view and the stronger faith emerge. Miss Elliot was the soloist.

Speaker for Sunday Nov. 26th Dean Howes;; for Dec. 3rd Professor Millar, of Robertson College.

The opening encounter in the I.B.L. was pulled off in the Gym. Wedn. evening, when our raw-meat eaters clashed with the Alberta College five with rather disastrous results for the latter. The A.C. representatives have been handicapped by lack of practise with fast opponents, and showed but a slight acquaintance with the finer points though their men are fast and game. Our huskies, however, several of whom are heroes of the good old days of the short arm jab find these effete times of the slap on the wrist and the kiss and run a trifle trying. Their work on several occasions bordered on the limit of four personal fouls. The College were outweighed and out-reached at every position and under these conditions cannot be blamed for the one-sided score which was officially given as 87-21.

Of the U. boys no one man can be singled out for mention as all performed in good style when condition is taken into consideration. The shooting was a trifle off, but scoring was evenly divided, Stanton annexing 37 points, Robinson 34 and East 14. Fife had a lone tally to his credit, but Robertson was unable to break into the scoring column despite many splendid attempts. Among the opposition Bateman perhaps showed the best form and was responsible for the bulk of his team's counters.

If the showing of this game is any criterion, 'Varsity are not in their own company, but we hope to see a good deal snappier and closer work under both baskets by our representatives in the next league match.

It has been definitely decided to go ahead with the rink and if weather conditions are right it should be opened sometime this week. In the meantime, tickets are being sold by the members of the Athletic executive and it is hoped you will not delay in doing your bit.

The Rifle Club have not been able to hold more than one shoot since the range was altered and as a result we are able to publish only the one score. It is reported that to compile a creditable total on the new basis to him: "For bravery on the requires a much higher grade of field I hereby promote you to marksmanship than heretofore so M. Sangster is to be congratulated on his score of 31. We also hear rumors of a suffragette sub-section, under the personal tuition of the club's President, but cannot vouch for the genuineness of the same. If this is true, however, we may expect to see that office hotly contested by some of our most outstanding fussers next spring.

Byron.—!—!!!

We took the hint of the suffragette Ed. and stationed one of our husky sleuths in the rear of the dog-house at the end of the High Level one evening last week. This is what he got. Item, one fresh and one freshette in close formation. Item, four or five inhabitants of the northern suburb waiting for a jit. Item, two fresh en route for the American Dairy Lunch. Item, several C.O.T.C. stalwarts in the garb of their calling. Item, sundry Wau-neitas going home after a cruel day's work. This is what he caught in the line of conversation. "They say he gets sore as the deuce if they call him sister, but I claim it's his own fault. Any guy that would wear pink spots deserves it." "And Captain Alexander said: 'Not that left. The other left. How many lefts have you?'" "Coop says he saw us at the Pan Sunday evening, but he was too busy watching a chicken across the aisle to see much of us." "It's a wonder the City wouldn't put up a lodging-house here. They'd do well." "I said: 'No, sir, I can't go. I'm sick.' And besides I don't think it proper to wait till six o'clock on the evening of the dance to ask me." "Isn't that cashier some pippin. The Dairy Lunch sure did right when they hired her. Every time I think of her I get hungry." "I don't see why a Red Dear College girl isn't the same as a freshette in residence but he said: 'Who wants to be a cradle-snatcher?' I says, 'I don't know but there's a lot of guys in Physics I wouldn't mind it.'" "Isn't that little fellow that got 86 in history just stunning. I think he is too sweet for words." "So Capt. Killam said the report in last week's number that every copper hates him. He says it is a canard or words to that effect, because he never was arrested in his life.

We might nominate several gentlemen who would do that job most thoroughly, not to say artistically, for the mere joy of doing it. Without naming any names we imagine R-b-ts-n, McK-y or R-rf-d would fill the bill very nicely. They seem to have the proper sort of taste.

A Notice.

Mr. Red G-z asks the editor of this column to deny for him the report in last week's number that every copper hates him. He says it is a canard or words to that effect, because he never was arrested in his life.

We noted that that old reliable color scheme, brown and white, was carried out around our halls one day last week.

Thus endeth the last paragraph.

The annual reception of the Sophomores to the Freshmen was held in Athabasca Hall, on Friday evening last. A large attendance marked the Opening Function of the Season. The "one-step" appeared for the first time on the List of Dances, as a result of approval by the Committee on Student Affairs of the recent motion passed by the Students' Union. The marked success of the reception has justified the introduction of the one-step. A program of games was carried on also, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

As our Editor-in-Chief is absent this week, the duty falls on one hitherto inexperienced with the worries of an Editor. We regret that some good articles have been crowded out, and would suggest that all concerned would facilitate matters by sending in all material for publication early in the week, previous to publication day.

LADIES.

Editor, Gateway:

Do you know that the Wauneta motto is: "Each for All and All for Each?"

Lost, strayed or stolen from the Lounge, on Saturday evening last — eight Waunetas. Rumor has it that the Octette of Fair ones was actually at another party, but we don't believe it, do we?

Physical instructor to girl who has difficulty with the dainty little dances. "Never mind, dear, the most awkward girl in the "Obbinitka" School of Physical Culture is now Assistant at that school."

Latin I and III should be a very noisy class—at least if the keys belonging to the members of said class were to rattle and jingle as keys sometimes do, not a word could be heard about Old Age.

For information concerning the Janitress of the University, we refer you respectfully to Miss Edna Tharp.

On Saturday evening, Nov. 18, the Sophomores entertained the members of the Wauneta Society to the very best sort of jollification.

It was a happy circle around the fireplace on the Lounge who heard the interesting program of the evening. Then came the eats—cake with thick frosting and the coffee—well, it would drive away sleep even in test times. After the refreshments, Miss Schade was gracefully escorted to the piano and began that irresistible melody "When you were a tulip." Whereupon the dance began. Everybody who could dance did so and everybody who couldn't, tried.

One of the happiest events of the year closed with a real deep "Varsity" Varsity.

We hope to have more girls' parties, for they are great fun in spite of the fact that Schopenhauer believed girls simply couldn't enjoy themselves by themselves. From little things we have heard, we are inclined to believe there are some youthful minds who choose to believe as Schopenhauer.

Don't! that's all we have to say.

"Society" Editors rule for punctuation—when in doubt use a dash—

Why not start a Girl's No-Slang Battalion at the University? Of course, there is a difficulty, for since so few of us really use slang to any extent.

We should all want commissions and where would the ranks come in?

Tillie and Buzzie did buzz until Tillie and Buzzie were told to buzz no more until another day—a fact told by Tillie.

"Geologically speaking, the time between Tests is infinitely small and the wonder is that so many lectures can be taken in these periods, but the greater wonder is how so little of these lectures can sometimes be taken."

We insert the following letter from a freshette:

U. of A., etc.

Dear Clarence:

I am a freshette. I don't need a chaperone. I have no occasion for a chaperone. Did I need one, I'd get one of the junior girls—they are good at that. I'm writing to keep you from worrying about us. All the others feel just as I do about the miserable question. The freshmen might need companions to watch them. They are so young.

Excuse my style of writing, but you know what I mean.

Yours respectfully,
CLARISSA.

P.S.—I can write longer letters when there is no censor to read them.

Who saw the Graces dancing the Triangular Trealla at Gym the other day — rather who didn't?

We are so anxiously awaiting the beginning of the rink. Why our dollars are just burning in our pockets, but there is a chance of them burning on until we see either a board or the glint of ice.

"The Gateway is so full of a number of things That when the Girls see it their hall with laughter rings."

ing school. J. W. Doze is out on survey work somewhere in B. C., I believe. Annes is engineer with a mining company developing a silver lead proposition about 150 miles east of Prince Rupert on the G.T.P.; Kidd ("Captain") was out all summer with Mr. Cameron on Geological Survey work and has lately returned from "down on the farm". "Shorty" Aitcheson is as you all doubtless noticed in the Gateway, at Queen's and is looked upon as a "find" by the football squad.

There is quite a Science coloring to all of the above news, but I picked up a Calendar of 1913-14 and was just running through the names of those registered in the Faculty at that time. I think I will get someone to do the same for Arts and Medicine sometime when space permits.

Lieut. McNally is reported as slightly wounded. I trust his writing arm is still O.K. and that now that leisure has been forced upon him we will have a few of those breezy epistles of which he is capable.

The O.T.C. is in the full swing of a most successfull season. This was of course to be expected under the present O.C. The all day manouvres last Saturday were a big success. D. M. Robertson of Sci. '18; has been appointed to the vacant commission. The permanent sergeants are to be appointed this week I believe.

Corp. E. Heywood of the 143rd (B. C. Bantams) was in from Victoria yesterday, and reports that they expect to crow in English air very soon, by Xmas time, if present signs and portents fail not.

I am sure that you will all be most sorry to hear that Miss Dillow has been called home on account of the sudden death of her father. The News Letter this summer owes its continued and regular appearance to Miss Dillow's sympathetic interest in the matter and I am sure that on your behalf I may extend to her our heartfelt sympathy.

MILITARY

The U. of A. C.O.T.C. has had its first manoeuvre-day. On Saturday, November 17th, the Company fell in bright (?) and early, and were rapidly disposed of. The vanguard was composed of Nos. 1 and 2 Platoons, under the command of Captain Alexander; this portion of our forces started out at 9 a.m. The main guard (the Company, less Nos. 1 and 2 platoons), under Captain Killam, set off at 9.30. Our main body, it is reported, left the corner of 1st street and Jasper avenue at 10.30 a.m. The advance guard (the whole of our company, divided as above) went by the shortest route to Saskatchewan Drive, and along it as far as Calder's Bridge, where we halted, for rest and nourishment. Owing to shortage of fuel, or some like unfortunate circumstance, the commissariat was late in arriving. But when it did come, it was noticeable how little difficulty the Sjt. Cook found in securing volunteers from the different companies for fatigue duties under him.

One or two members of the expedition went on a little private scouting party, and we were beginning to feel considerable anxiety about 6734268 when we saw him arriving effectually disguised (by a judicious smearing of charcoal on his face, and a few wisps of hay about his body) as a hay-stack.

The O. C., our main body, decided not to wait for the enemy, so we returned, arriving upon the parade-ground, "tired, but happy," at 4.30 p.m.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Clarence

As a direct result of my advertisement in your last issue of the Gatewail, the attendance at my weekly auction sale, Tuesday evening increased 100 per cent over that of last week. The result was that bidding was much brisker and better prices were realized. At first when some one suggested that I advertise in the Gateway I was a little skeptical as to whether it would pay me but having given it a trial I can unhesitatingly say that it has paid me a thousand fold. Beginning next Tuesday I shall conduct three auction sales at the same time. At the old stand I shall hold sway myself and dispose of some native born cats. In room 319 my two assistant auctioneers Messrs Foster and Kirkpatrick who have been engaged to take care of my increasing business will auction off some imported tabby-cats.

Again assuring you that I am more than pleased with the result of my advertising, I am,

Yours truly
Mon—

SERVICE NEWS LETTER
from
SOLDIERS' COMFORT CLUB
No. 34. Nov. 24, 1916.
Edited by W. Muir Edwards.

Letters this week are from Cpl. M. E. Tiffin, (via Dr. Revell), Lieut. E. J. VanPetten, (via the Wauneta Editor), Lieut. Chas. A. Grant (Nov. 3rd), Major Moshier, also service cards from Wm. T. Knights and Gunner J. P. McCaffrey, and post card from Major MacRae.

The following additions to our Honour Roll should be noted:

Pte. F. E. Townsend, No. 523253, A.M.C. Army Hospital, Shorncliffe; S. R. Laycock, M.A. Div. Signallers C.E.F., Toronto; Gunner W. H. Mooney, No. 338012, 67th Batt. Can. F. Art. C. E. F.; Gunner E. W. Pilgrim, 50th Batt'n, Can. F. Art., C. E. F.; Pte. G. C. Beresford who is reported in Carswell's letter as being with the 101st, but whether he means the old 101st E. F. who became the 9th O. B., C.E.F. or the 101st O.B., C. E. F., from Winnipeg, I do not know.

Tiffin's letter gives the following interesting details of what some of the 11th Field Ambulance are doing: "Hewson and I have been looking after the administration of tetanus antitoxin to the wounded, at a main dressing station. It is very interesting work and not too strenuous. Locke is on the office staff, doing clerical work here, also Corbett and Higginbotham, pharmacy students. Graham, Mulloy and McBride are in wards as dressers assisting the officers in this work. Hammond is our Senior Sergeant and looks after the bearer work. Mr. Hole is our sergeant dispenser." Van Petten writes: "I do not know which branch of the News Letter I am supposed to write to, but it is not fair to send them all to Prof. Edwards, and until I get definite information on this point I am going to give my official information to the Wauneta Society. To begin with, I might say that there has been a prolonged argument between Mr Perraton and myself as to whose duty it is to report to the News Letter, but since you have incorporated the new branch you will likely hear from both of us. Our Batt. is no longer a battalion and Fred is with the 137th and I am with the 175th. I do not know where Hollies went. When I was in London I saw Bob Martin, but have not seen any of the other Varsity boys. I imagine that when I get over near the front line trenches I will be in a more likely place to meet some of them. Mr. Grant writes from the 1st London General Hospital. Only lately (since I have been in the hospital) have I received the circular letters sent to those at the front from the University. I enjoy reading them and thank you for them. I am writing simply to express a word of appreciation of the U. of A. men who have gone to the front, some of whom have paid the full price. When we left Montreal for England I had in my platoon a great many of the U. of A. men, but in France I was given a platoon which did not have so many. I had, however, Lavell, Loptson, Galbraith and the Bainbridges. Their good spirits at all times was wonderful and even on the 15th of September when we had to pass through a frightful German barrage there was no flinching. It was in passing through that barrage that Galbraith was wounded. Lavell paid the price the first part of October. One of the other officers wrote me of his death. I will miss him when I return. I lost over half my platoon in the September attack and I feel the loss very keenly. My wounds are healing nicely but as my left arm was paralyzed I am afraid it is going to be some months before it is serviceable again. With kind regards to the faculty and students."

There has been a persistent rumor that Lieut. James has died of his wounds, but so far as I know he is O.K. although wounded and in Lady Corpei's Hospital, Hursley Park, Winchester, Eng. As has been already noted, he is reported as having been recommended for the D. S. O. In this week's Gateway we publish the photograph of A. W. ("Doc") Carmichael, who was at the University for some time and was well known particularly in hockey circles. He enlisted with the 19th A. D. at the outbreak of the war and has been with them since. He is reported as having been recommended for the D.C.M. Another of our men, Lieut. S. J. Davies (Arts '15) who enlisted with the 51st and went to the 49th at the front, has been granted the Military Medal for his work on Sept. 15th and 16th.

Lieut. Don Kent (Law), who was wounded some time ago with the 49th, is now out of the hospital and attached to the 9th Reserve Bn. C.E.F. at Shorncliffe. Lieut. G. E. Patterson (B.A. '16) of the 194th who went over with the draft of officers in August, is at the Canadian Military School at Shorncliffe. Pte. L. E. German (Med '18) No. 475858, whose number would indicate that he went over with the 3rd Univ. Co. but who transferred to the Laboratory at Moore's Hospital, is now with No. 2 Canadian Mobile Laboratory, 79 Bouvrie Rd., Folkestone, Kent. Jack Beaton (Sci. '16) is No. 550223 and is with the Strathcona Horse, C.E.F.; A. T. Glanville (B.A. '15 & Law) is now a Sergeant with the P.P.C. L.I. Depot at South Caesar's Camp, Shorncliffe. We have lately obtained information of one of the very early names on our Honor Roll, i.e. Pte. W. T. Fowler No. 18644, whose address is No. 13 Hut, "A" Co. 36th Bn. C.E.F., West Sandling, Kent. So far as I know, Fowler enlisted with the 101st E.F. when that unit left Edmonton at war establishment, but as to his further movements I have no information.

All of the students of the earlier years will remember Hotchkiss of Sci. '13. He is back from the north country, where he has been on a survey party all summer, and is planning on looking some of you up "over there" immediately if not sooner. C. A. Buck of Sci. '15 struggled out of the north country also this week. He expects to be in Edmonton for a week or so and then will, he thinks, be located at Toronto for the winter. Read of Sci. '14 is also back from the north and plans on writing off his D.L.S. papers next spring. Lillco and Skarin of last year's Applied Science second year are back this year, and with Middleton of the Architects are having a personally conducted tour amidst the mazes of elliptic stresses, submerged weirs and other delights of Third Year Civil. There is no fourth year work in Applied Science being given.

Of last year's freshman class in Applied Science, Bin Wong, Robertson, Graham and Hughes are back this year. Mr. Cromarty who took Prof. Burgess' (now Capt. Burgess of the 196th) place in Architecture, left about three weeks ago to take up work in the Munitions Branch at Ottawa, where Mr. Robb presides. I heard indirectly that A. McInnes of Sci. '15 was also at Ottawa in the same department. Lieut. L. B. Brown Sci. '15 of the 187th was in yesterday on final leave and so expects to see you all "on the other side of the pond" fairly soon. He looks as though the life agreed with him. Of the other App. Sci. men both Milton Brown and Hallman are teach-
